

Internships Opportunities in the European Union

European Union Platform

Informations about internships in the European Union

European Personnel Selection Office

The service EPSO is responsible for the personal selection usually is done by general contest. Institutions and organs of the EU accept interns.

Euraxess Network

It's a service for researchers that want to have, be an intern or work in another European country.

European Youth Portal

It is an initiative with young people as target, between 15 and 25 years old, there are several internships and formations available.

Europlacement

Here you can find opportunities for Internships in the EU and all their areas.

Apalv Portugal

This association promotes the improvement of learning skills through the lifetime and has a variety of internships available.

Eurocid

Here you can find all information and contacts from Europe.